

WILLS FAMILY

, from Virginia,
R. H. Wills believed to be only boy of the family married Sarah Breeze also from Virginia. Probably married in Missouri. The couple lived near ^{Macan} Plata, Missouri, and there their family of seven children were born. (three boys and four girls.)

Lissie, the first child, married Ben Gooding, a banker in Missouri, where they lived. To them were born Rosco, Alma, and Ethel. Alma died in childhood. young womanhood.

The second child, Joseph, was a school teacher and in about 1875 and ~~in-abea~~ came from Missouri on the railroad. Joseph was the first of the family to come west. The rest, except for Lissie, came in about 1877. ^{Came to San Francisco then to Dayton} Joseph Wills later married Millie Williams also from Missouri. There was no former acquaintance. ^{Valla Valla then Plata}

To this union were born, Maud, ^{Estella} who married Edmond Owens, no children; Victor ^{an} ~~Uriens~~, who married ^{Vertie} Vertie DeWalt from Kansas (to them were born Ronald, Max, Wilford, Elizabeth (died at 2½ years) Eleanor, Mary, and AnnaMay;) and Ethel, who married Samuel Ulysæss Webster, (who had Raymond E., Floyd, Vivian Pamela, Helen Estella, Edna Evangiline, and Dorothy Virginia.)

Robert, third child, came west and taught school, later married Mary Elsensohn, a German from Iowa. Children Winifred ^{91st regiment, Machine gunnist} married a Scott of Los Angeles; Meredith married ^{Mary} and settled near Los Angeles; Raymond, died in young manhood from ^u pneumonia; and Elendar, who married ^{(G. H.) Dickie Dickson}

Jennie, fourth child, ~~ma~~ taught school segeal years, then married ^{James} R. McMaster and after living in Pomeroy where her family, Hortense, who ~~m~~ taught school and ~~married~~ at second marriage ^{Donald and} married Erling Colberg. from Alaska; Willis, Wendal, .

Pilot Rock, Oregon

Ella, the fifth child taught in the grade school and at her first marriage married Ed Wilson. To them was bor one daughter, Ulla, who married Frank Cardwell. Their daughter, Alieen married from Portland. Ella, after the death of her first husband married Oscar Williamson. No children were born to this union.

Samuel Mac, the sixth child, taught school, then studied law in Moscow, and later took pneumonia and died.

Lizzie, the seventh and last child, ~~marrie~~ taught music. She married a Norman and to them were born Stacy, a wireless telegrapher, and two girls.